

25° Overcast

Advanced Search
Search the Last 12 Months

Thanks for visiting the daily-journal.com. You're entitled to view 10 free articles every 30 days. Then, if you enjoy our site and want full access, we'll ask you to purchase an affordable subscription. Current print subscribers receive access but are required to setup an account.

9 Remaining

Will County Threshermen's event continues

Story Comments Image (1)

Print Font Size:

Recommend 0 Tweet 0 g+1 0

Posted: Saturday, July 20, 2013 9:48 am | Updated: 9:16 am, Mon Dec 23, 2013.

Nicholas Holstein

Tom Runty, of Maple Park, left, and Trevor Ives, of Worcestershire, England, right, operate the 1913 Port Huron Steam Engine owned by Runty as wheat is threshed at the Will County Threshermen's Reunion at the Round Barn Farm Park in Manhattan Thursday.

Buy this photo

The Daily Journal staff reports

0 comments

The Will County Threshermen's Association's Antique Tractor, Steam Engine and Gas Engine Show continues through Sunday at the Round Barn Farm Park in Manhattan.

Step back in time to the age of steam power and hand work in agriculture. See demonstrations of wheat threshing, corn shelling, plowing, saw milling and more. Antique cars, trucks and tractors are on display. Antique gas engines will be featured.

Come join us!

Personal development and computer skills
Take up a new hobby or learn more about using a computer.

Short-term job training
Certification credit and job training for a number of fields.

Online training
Take advantage of the convenience of online learning. Visit www.ad2go.com/kankakeecc for a full list of options.

Customization to fit your needs
If we aren't already offering the training you want, just call 815-802-8200 or email mpoising@kcc.edu.

www.kcctrainingsolutions.org
Kankakee Community College
CONTINUING EDUCATION & CAREER SERVICES

The flea market offers a mix of antiques and hand-crafted goods. Kids' games and magic shows will be featured. Food and refreshments are available. Admission is $5, or $2 for children 11 and younger.

The show opens at 9 a.m. daily and closes with sweet corn cooked by steam power at 5 p.m. Saturday and with a plowing demonstration at 3:30 p.m. Sunday.

Submit Your News!

We're always interested in hearing about news in our community. Let us know what's going on!

Recommend 0 Tweet 0 g+1 0

Discuss

Print